Dedication

We, the senior class of 1959, consider it a privilege to take this opportunity to dedicate our yearbook to one truly exemplary of Christ on earth, --our New Apostolic Prelate, Pope John XXIII.

Already his example of Christian charity and principles is universally known. Therefore, it is with this example that we shall strive to govern our lives with the intention of becoming more Christ-like.

*Our Bishop
The Most Reverend
George J. Rehring*

Rt. Rev. Monsignor Reineck
Our Pastor

Our Principal, Father Thomas W. Kuhn, serving in his second year as executive head of the high school, obtained his B. A. degree in philosophy from St. Meinrad's Seminary in St. Meinrad, Indiana. Father then spent four years at Mt. St. Mary's of the West in Cincinnati. His studies in education were made at this time in connection with the Athenaeum of Ohio in Cincinnati, and Father received his M. A. degree in philosophy from that institute in 1957. Besides his duties as principal, Father Kuhn also fills the capacity of director of athletics, instructor of apologetics for the senior class, and director of dramatics of the senior class play.

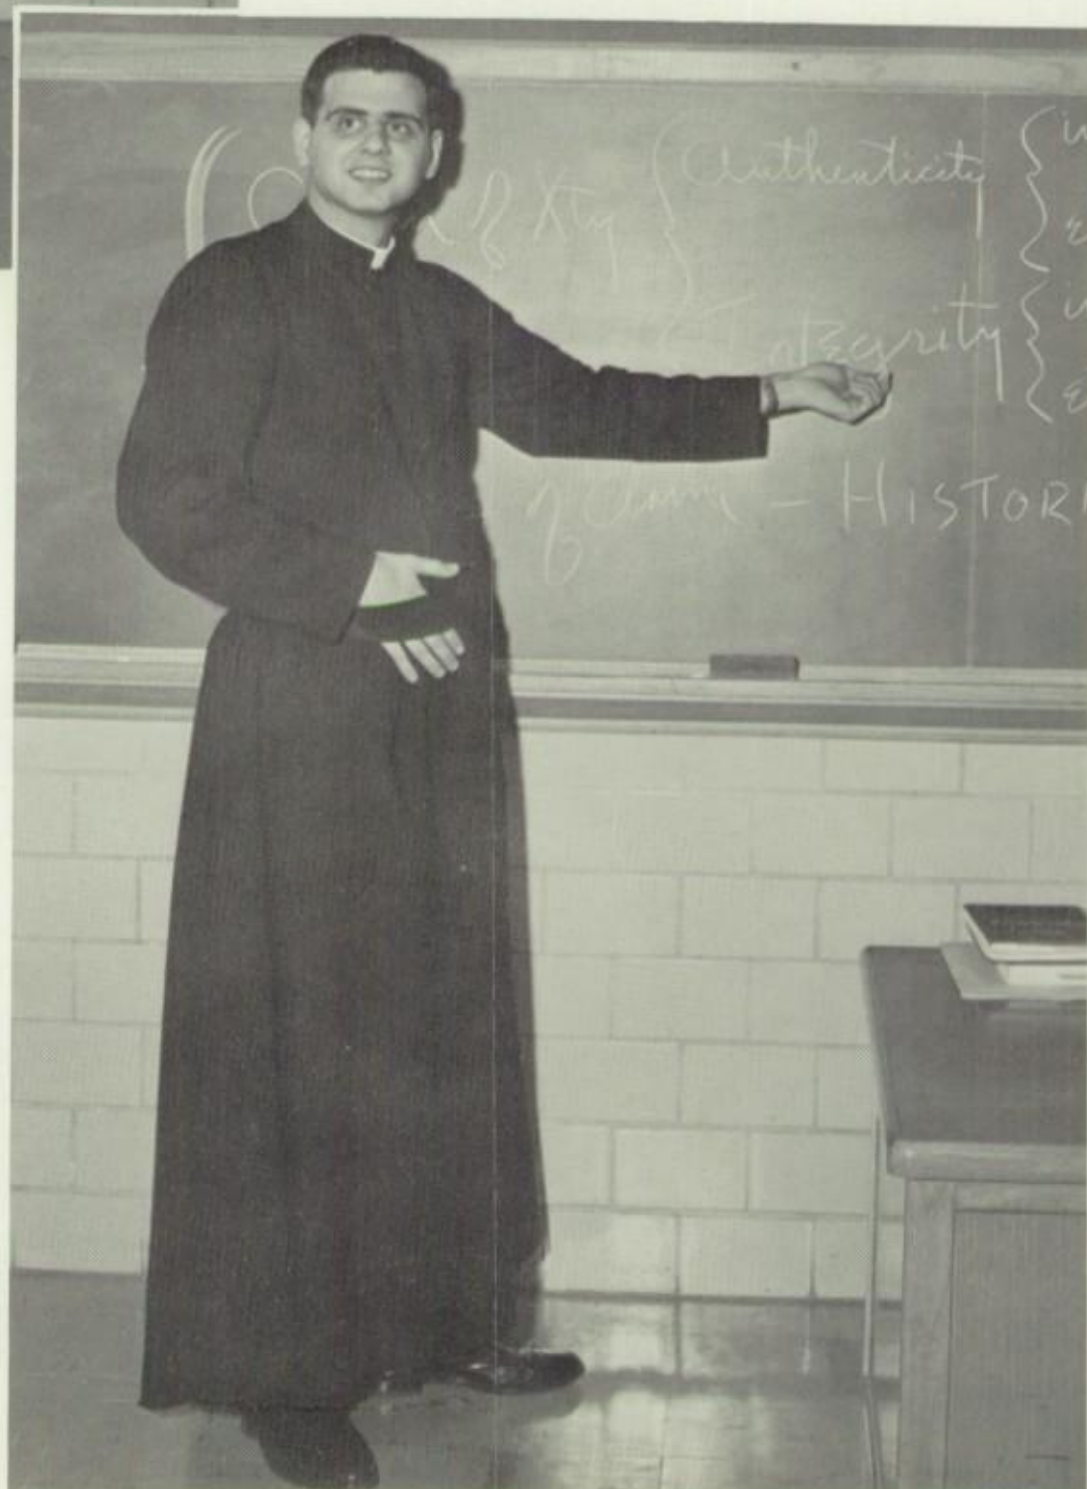

Mrs. Henry Weisgerber, an alumna of St. John's, is the high school secretary. Some of the duties that she exercises are, assisting with the bookkeeping and the records and, checking the absentee slip.

Father Albert Ottenweller has been an assistant at St. John's since his ordination in 1943. He received his A. B. degree at the Catholic University in Stanford, Montana and was ordained a priest at the Holy Rosary Cathedral in Toledo, June 18, 1943. He teaches the junior boy's religion class.

Father John Quenneville, newly assigned to St. John parish, is an alumnus of Mount St. Mary Seminary in Cincinnati. Father also attended Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit, Michigan, St. Mary College in Illinois, and St. Xavier University in Chicago. Father teaches junior girls' and freshmen boys religion.

Sister Mary Agnese earned her M. A. degree in education at the University of Notre Dame. Sister is also a sophomore adviser and school librarian. She teaches general science and chemistry.

Sister Mary Gregory received her B. S. E. from DeSales College. Sister is a junior adviser and heads the home economics department. She also teaches English 3, and directs the girls' glee club.

Sister Mary Jeanne, principal of the grade school, received her M. A. degree from Catholic University of America with a major in Latin and a minor in Greek. Sister teaches Latin 2.

Sister Mary Lenarda, sophomore adviser, received her B. S. E. from De Sales College, and her M. Ed. from University of Dayton. Sister teaches algebra 1, Latin 1, and freshmen boys' religion.

Sister Mary Leota received her M. A. degree at the University of Detroit. She is a junior adviser and teaches English 3, college and practical physics, and geometry.

Sister Mary Louann received her degree in business education from Columbia University and heads the department. Sister is a sophomore adviser and teaches bookkeeping, shorthand 1 and 2, typing 2, and secretarial training.

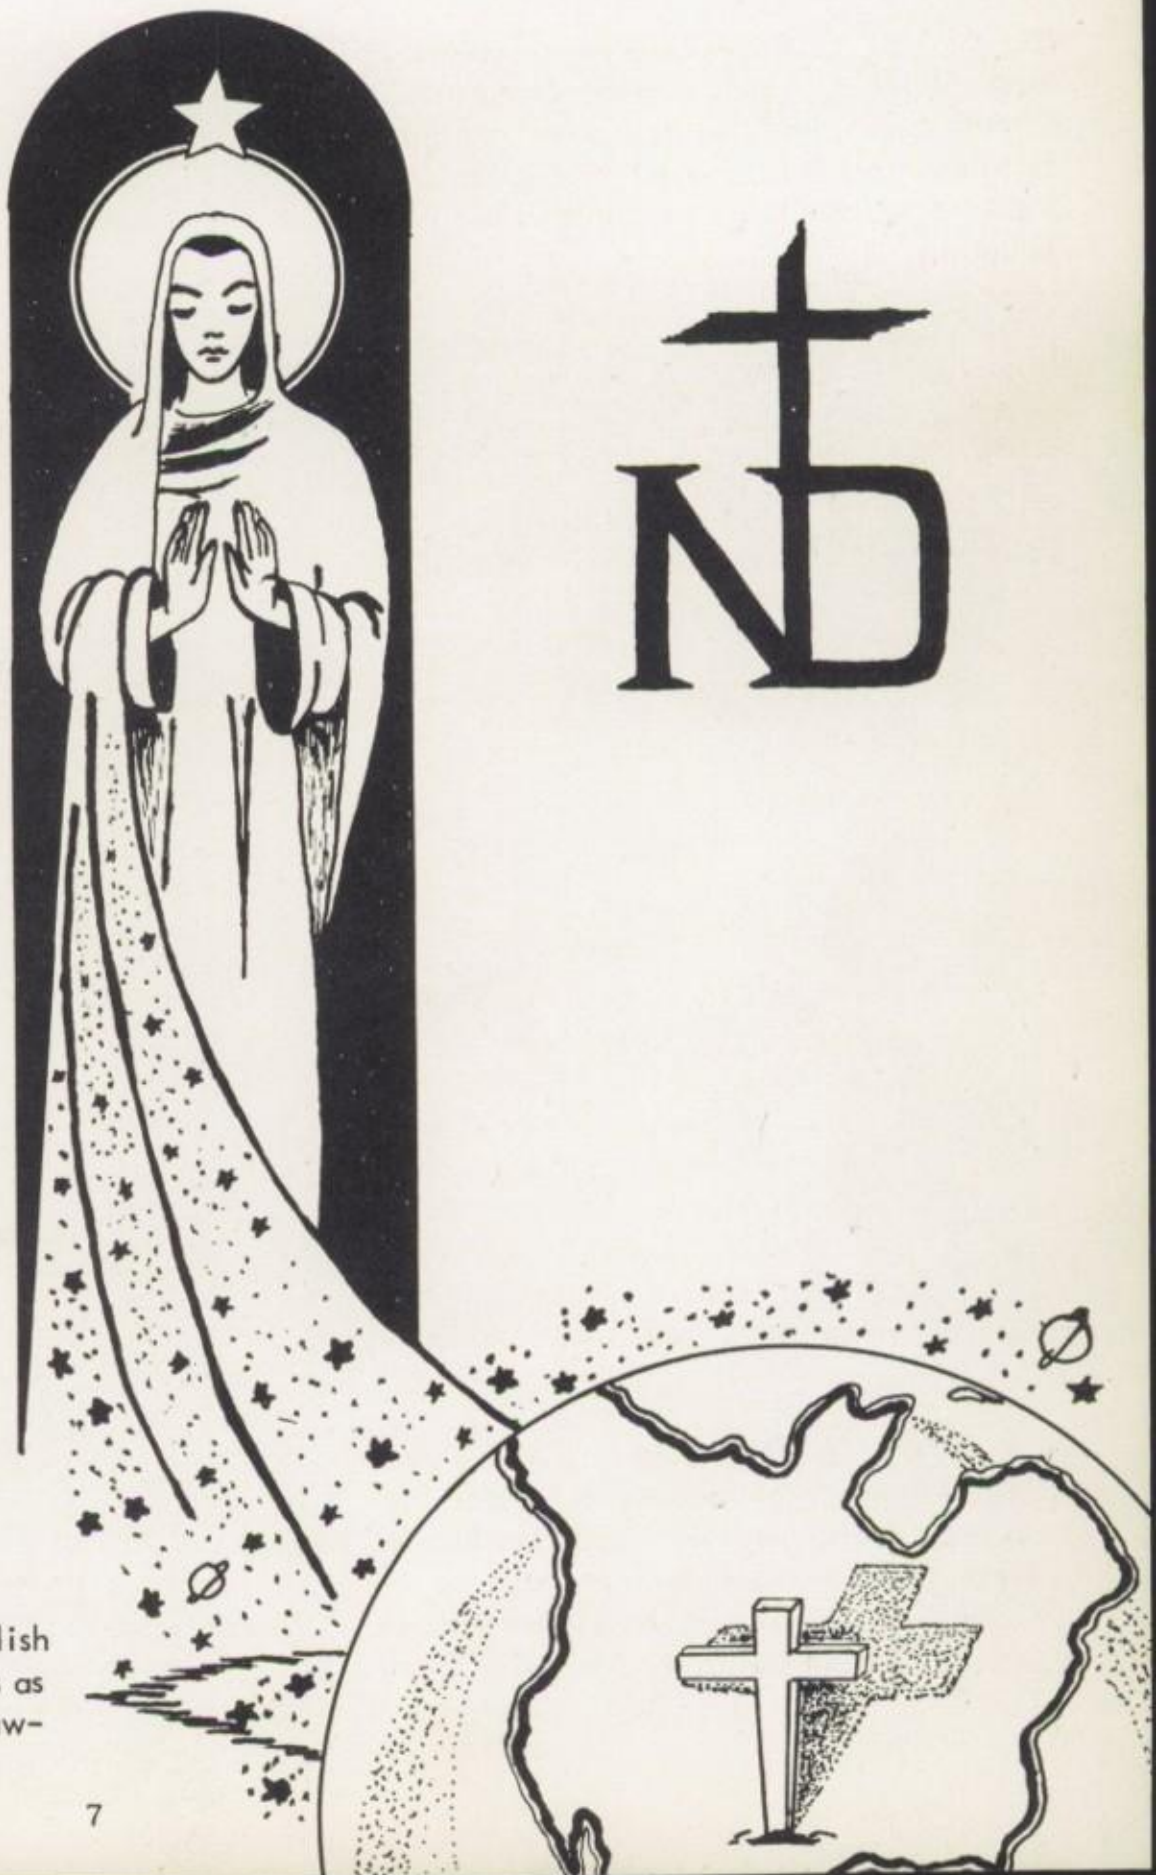

Sister Mary Lourde, is a freshmen homeroom adviser and is moderator of the SHIELD and CREST. Sister teaches English 2 and religion 1.

Sister Mary Madeleine, senior adviser, received her M. A. degree in education at Fordham University. Sister teaches English 4, Latin 3 and 4, and American history.

Sister Mary Rosella received her M. A. degree in English from the University of Notre Dame. Sister also serves as a senior adviser and teaches English 4, mechanical drawing, trigonometry, and advanced algebra.

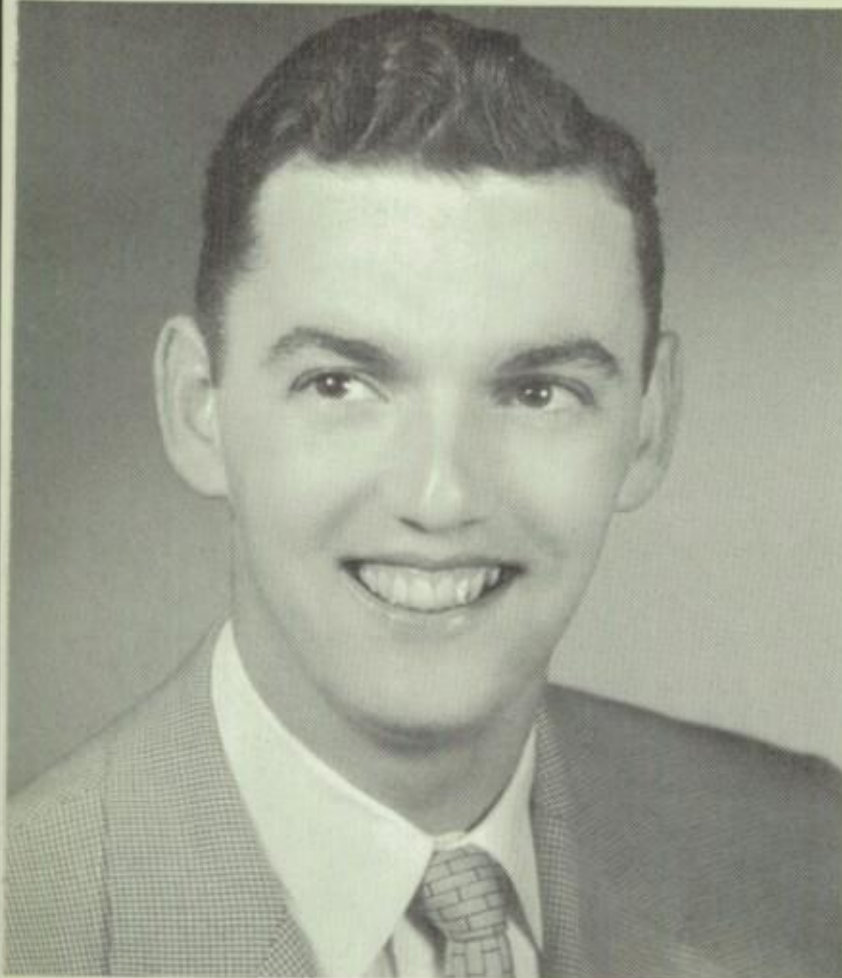

Sister Mary Annelle received her M. Ed. from the University of Detroit. She is a freshmen adviser and teaches Spanish 1 and Typing 1.

Sister Mary Immaculee, freshmen adviser, received her A. B. and B. S. E. from Mary Manse College in Toledo, and is presently a candidate for her Masters' degree. Sister teaches ancient history and English 1.

Lay Teachers

MR. ROBERT R. ARNZEN, head basketball coach of the St. John's squad and assistant football coach, has a B. S. degree in Physical Education from the University of Dayton. Mr. Arnzen also teaches physiology and driver's education.

MR. WILLIAM B. RICCO, a newcomer to the SJH faculty, is head football coach and assistant basketball coach. Mr. Ricco has a B. S. degree in Education from the University of Dayton and teaches Speech 1 and 4, and world history.

MR. LLOYD B. SMITH, a member of the Delphos Jefferson high school faculty, graduated from Ohio State University with a B. S. degree in Agriculture. In the summer of 1958, he received his M. S. degree. Mr. Smith teaches vocational agriculture to the St. John's boys.

MR. THOMAS E. HERRMAN, head director of the St. John's Band, is a graduate of the University of Dayton. He also directs the grade school band.

Auxiliary Teachers

Mrs. Clair M. Steinhour is head director of dancing for the senior class play, and received her training at the Busch Conservatory in Chicago.

Mrs. A. J. Myers, one of the girls' athletics instructors, also assists Mrs. Clair Steinhour with the choreography of the senior class play. Mrs. Myers studied dancing at the Arthur Murray Studio.

Mr. Charles J. Gedert teaches biology, assists with the vocal direction of the senior play, directs the adult choir, the boys' glee club, and the grade school chancel choir. Mr. Gedert studied at St. Meinrad Archabbey in St. Meinrad, Indiana.

Mrs. Rose Fast, vocal director of the senior class play, studied music at Notre Dame College, Cleveland.

Mrs. Robert I. Hall, art directress of the senior class play, studied at the St. Vincent College, Shreve port, Louisiana.

Miss Helen Stallkamp, our church organist, received her training in music from St. Mary's Conservatory, St. Mary's College, Monroe, Michigan, the Busch Conservatory in Chicago, Illinois, and Conservatoire de Lausanne in Lausanne, Switzerland.

Mrs. John A. Shenk, a newcomer to the SJH faculty, is co-instructor of the girls' athletics class with Mrs. A. J. Myers.

Friends

Mrs. Lillian Clark, Mrs. Robert Kaverman, Mrs. Harry Backus, and Mrs. Katherine Bair prepare the meals daily for some 500 in the school cafeteria.

Mr. Eugene Fisher and Mr. Edward Wrasman serve as caretakers for the high school.

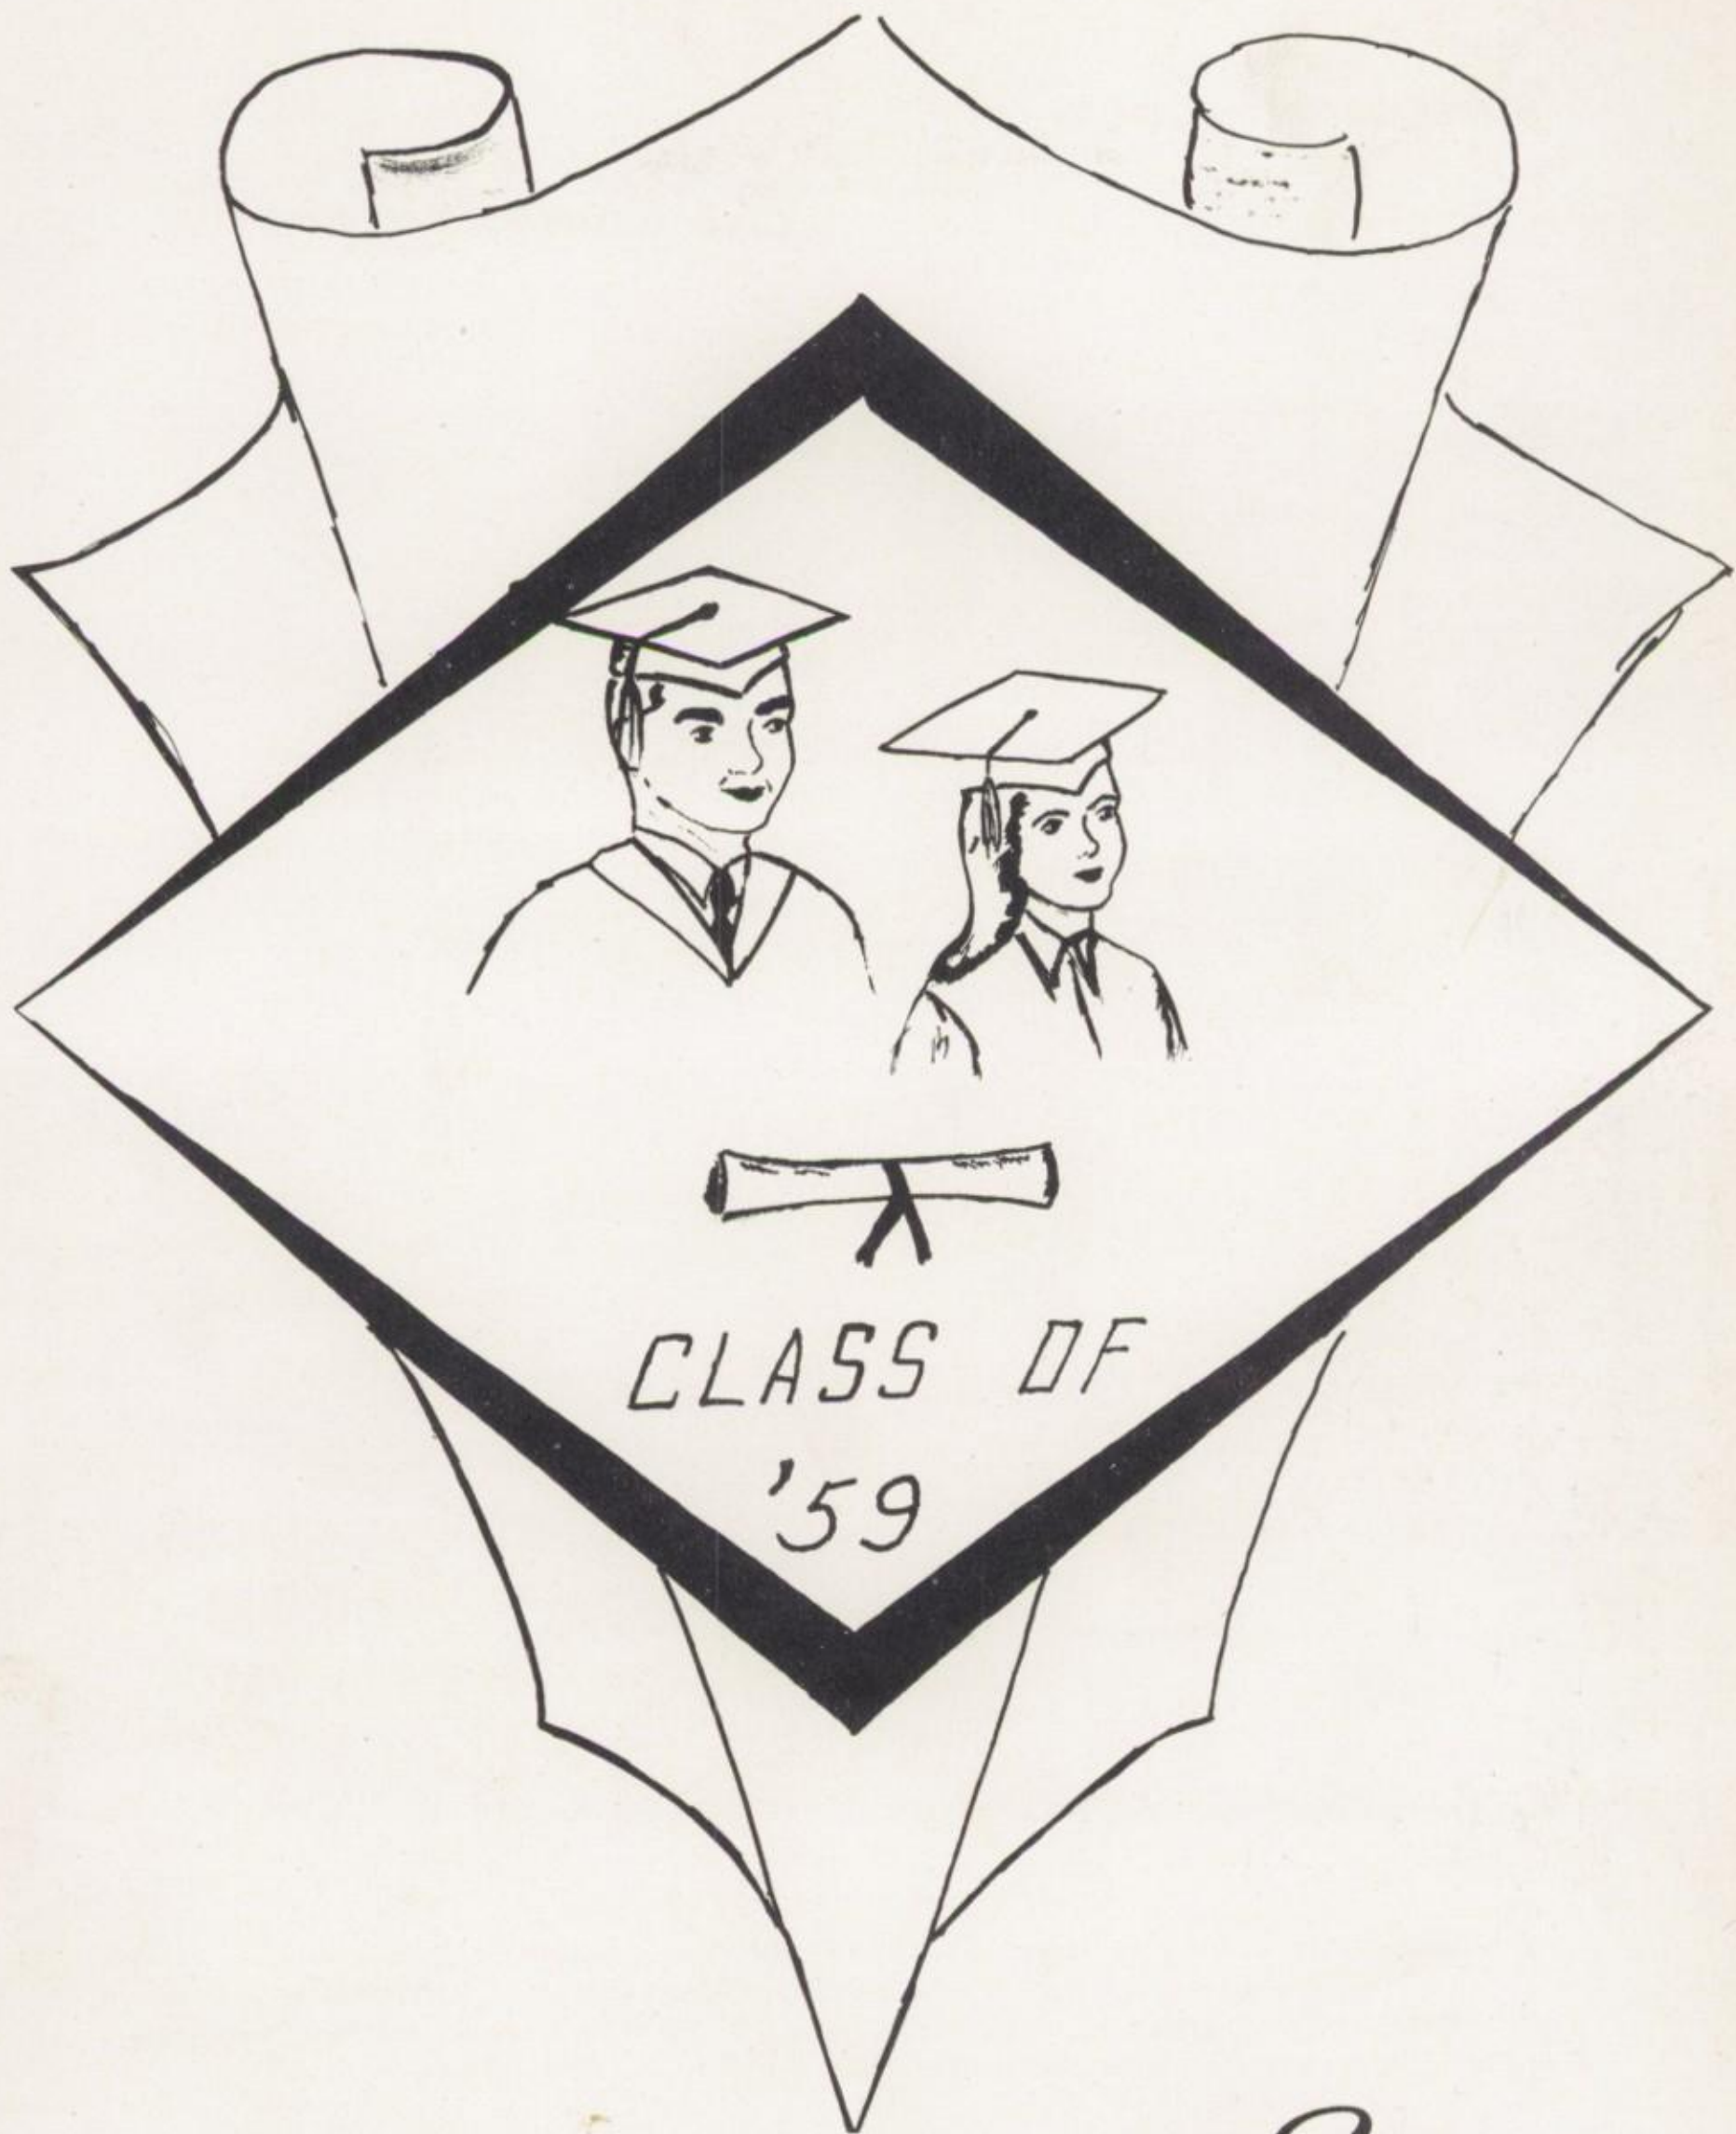

Mr. Oliver Sever, chief maintenance man, has now served his twentieth year as custodian of St. John's Church and school.

The camera catches Mr. Alphonse Borgelt carrying out one of his various duties as custodian of the church and school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Backus have given up their time to operate the concessions at all SJH basketball and football games.

Senior Vocations

PATRICIA HICKEY

We are proud of our classmates, Patricia Hickey and Joan Mueller, who are "going His Way" in following their vocations to religious life. May God Bless them!

JOAN MUELLER

Commencement

On the basis of their outstanding scholastic record, Richard Scherger was chosen as the class Valedictorian and Margaret Wrasman was chosen as Salutatorian.

Do You Remember?

September 2, 1958, and the confusion of the first day schedule...our first chemistry experiment...bonfire rally...the Homecoming game...the "Mexican Hat Rock"...study halls (our quiet riots)...the pizza parties (flying pizza pans)...the day Jeannie's cat died...black sweaters and skirts...school dances...last minute dashes to classes...Color Day (a blue and gold sash)...the P. A...the excitement of the first basketball game...empty gas tanks...ice skating parties...L. C. C...Our Trembling Mascot...the mirror in the Shield room (of course, we never used it Father!)... "1, 2, 3, --Ha! Ha! Ha!...Speech class...general assemblies...Harry Belafonte...Colonel Arzen's March...Lockers--they never seemed big enough...hair dye...the Chew-Chew after a game..."At this particular time"...girls basketball????...tote bags..."You're just too much" "75 to the twentieth power"...Prom...Class Play...Senior Picnic...Graduation night...2/3 of a pun...and-can you ever forget--the Parent-Teachers little get-together?
